CUB SCOUTS CELEBRATE CHILDREN'S WEEK AT WAINGUNGA DAY 2009

More than 200 Cub Scouts, Leaders and their families from Brisbane North, Near North Coast and Country Regions and from as far afield as Rosewood, Bribie Island and Oyster Point converged on MacPherson Park, Bracken Ridge to have fun in the sun to help celebrate Children's Week. Waingunga is the name of the river that runs through the Seonee Hills from Rudyard Kipling's "Jungle Book", which is the basis for Cub Scout training.

The main activity was a ride on a miniature steam train organised by Bracken Ridge Lion Club. Lions Club member and Group Leader for Bracken Ridge Scouts, Mr Keith Gridley said "the Club puts on the rides on the last Sunday of the month, which forms a major part of their fund raising for their charitable work". "We have about 4 or 5 engines running on two kilometres of track around the park with a ride usually being two circuits, depending on crowd numbers."

Some of the other activity bases were knock-ems, boomerang making, mini golf, team skis, Scouts Heritage also was there showing some of the colourful history of Scouting in the form of quizzes which the Cub Scouts had to search the display to find the answers. Another base was a Touchy Feely contest to guess the contents of a number of boxes. Ever felt cold cooked spaghetti or shaving cream when you can't see it?

Branch Commissioner for Cub Scouts, Robyn Devine also visited along with a special visitor, Mr Leigh Shenfield, chairman of the Children's Week Committee, who commented "How great it was to see so many children and their families enjoying the activities put on by the Scouts".

The day organised by Regional Cub Scout Leaders, Alan Fleming and Gary Hansen and with the assistance of District Advisers, Tim Gibbings and Shirley Frederick. Gary said "It was great to see Cubs enjoying themselves and wanted to especially thank those leaders who had made the effort and brought along some extra activities as well as their Pack to keep the Cub Scouts busy and make the day a success".

KARANA SCOUT'S GREY WOLF AWARD

On Friday October 23 members of the Karana Scout Group, Flinders District, Moreton Region and Queensland Branch celebrated the presentation of the Grey Wolf Award to Ainsleigh Foreman. ARC for Cub Scouts in Moreton Julie Foreman, had the pleasure of presenting the Grey Wolf Badge to her niece Ainsleigh in a ceremony that was attended by many of Ainsleigh's extended family and her school friends from Jamboree Heights ironically the site of the 1967 / 1968 Australian Scout Jamboree where both Ainsleigh's parents teach and her younger sister Margie (a Karana Joey Scout) attends school.

District Commissioner for Flinders Alex Mair, presented Ainsleigh with her Grey Wolf Certificate while Branch Commissioner for Cub Scouts Robyn Devine presented Ainsleigh with a specially made shield to mark the occasion.

Ainsleigh's contribution to scouting in Flinders District was recognised by the Karana Venturer Unit who presented a special appreciation certificate to her for her efforts in helping both the Karana and Flinders District Units over the past three years.

Ainsleigh's Grey Wolf Award was the fiftieth Cub Scout Badge she has achieved in her two and half years in this section after having previously been a part of the first group of Karana Joey Scouts to earn their Joey Scout Promise in 2005 / 2006.

After a number of activities and games were played a supper was held with the cutting of a Grey Wolf cake made by another of Ainsleigh's aunts former Cub Scout Leader Sheryl Goodger.

In a mark of appreciation to her Leaders David Steel, Lee Cripps and Robert Barnett, Ainsleigh presented them with a small gift to say thank you for the wonderful support and care that they have provided for her.

On Wednesday September 23 the Algester Cubs were invited by the RSPCA to help them present over 13000 signatures supporting "Justice for Animals", the petitions were presented outside the Brisbane Supreme Courts.

The Algester Cub Pack has been supporting the local RSPCA for over two years by holding an RSPCA night where they present an RSPCA representative with donations of dog and cat toys, food, towels and many other articles that the RSPCA is of need in.

This activity is very well supported by the youth members with both the Cub Scouts and RSPCA benefiting from this activity.

Patrols & Committee

In November 1909 the Chief Scoutmaster C.S. Snow reported there were 25 patrols, and one local committee had been formed. The patrols were located at, Kangaroo Point, Ithaca, North Brisbane, Y.M.C.A., Nundah, Clayfield, Windsor, Woolloongabba, Yeronga, Toowong, Paddington, Brisbane, Townsville, Boonah, Gympie, Stanthorpe, Toowoomba, Tarrigindi and Cairns.

The appointment of previously self appointed Scoutmasters were confirmed. These were L. Lovejoy, Ithaca; E.J. Bignold, Y.M.C.A.; R. Schoenheimer, Windsor; C. de B. Bennett, Nundah; F. Diprose, Townsville; A.J. Spreadborough and G.A. Keary, Boonah; C. O'Brien, Gympie; E. R. Wainwright, Nambour; A.J. Tucker, Brisbane.

Uniform Rule.

"No boy may purchase a uniform until such time as his Scoutmaster is satisfied that he intends qualifying for a Second Class Badge."

Brisbane Town Hall

Scoutmaster A. J. Tucker reported No. 2 North Brisbane Troop (later No. 1 Brisbane) was granted a room in the Town Hall by the Council authorities for their meeting place. (The Town Hall at the time was in Queen Street just down from George Street on the left hand side)

A report of one of this Troop's activities was presented as " on Saturday afternoon the Patrol's marched to the foot of One Tree Hill ( Mt. Cootha ), seven boys did the mile, Scout's pace, varying from 9 minutes to 11 minutes. "

"On my honour I promise that I will do my best, to do my duty to my God and to the Queen of Australia, to help other people and to live by the Scout Law."

These may seem strange words to start this Encompass article but the Scout Promise is after all the very pillar upon which our Movement is built. I have to say I wonder if this pillar is starting to develop some cracks and if these cracks are not mended very shortly then the very basis on which our Movement was built will be in jeopardy.

Why do I say this? It appears to me in this day and age that when something happens that causes us a little concern the first thing we do is put our fingers on a keyboard and start writing an email with the recipient of that email normally being outside the line system in which we work. Whatever happened to people sitting down and having a quiet chat? Are we frightened that we will resolve the situation without telling the whole world about it or do we hide behind our computers because the art of conversation is fast disappearing from our society.

I also have to ask myself is this situation being exacerbated by the fact that Group Councils are nonexistent in a number of Groups and even where they do exist, do they really talk about the nitty gritty of what the problems are at the Group and how they can be addressed in a manner which reflects our Scout Law and our Scout Promise.

I deem myself extremely lucky if either in my inbox of a morning or in the morning mail I do not receive a complaint of some description. The sad part of this is that in most cases no attempt whatsoever has been made to overcome the situation at a Group level, no attempt whatsoever has been made to communicate the situation to the Section Leader or to the Group Leader and in a lot of cases the person making the complaint wishes to remain anonymous which makes it extremely difficult to address the situation and to apply the principles of our Scout Law and Promise.

Our Scout Law and Promise talks about the way we should treat other people and gives us the guidelines in which we should work to develop ourselves and to develop the people around us. I hear over and over again the comments about parents not supporting Scout Groups and the strange thing is that this always seems to be the parents fault.

Last year in Queensland we saw our Youth Membership increase by over 8%. If we do not develop a situation within all the Formations of the Queensland Branch of open and free communication then we will fast see this membership base of young people dwindle away because of the dissatisfaction of parents. There are always two sides to any situation and the only way to overcome that situation is to listen to both sides, to hear what those sides are saying and to undertake to work together to try to alleviate the situation.

If we work together using the Scout Law and the Scout Promise as our basis we can repair the cracks that I spoke about earlier in this article, we can become part of a happier and more friendlier group and we can use that regenerated base to ensure that parents see, or continue to see, the Association as a Movement which not only gives their child a number of exciting experiences but builds their child's character and gives them a basis upon which they can continue to build their lives.

The challenge is before us. Until next month I wish you good Scouting.

SIR LESLIE WILSON DISTRICT JOEY SCOUTS TAKE ON ADVENTURE

The Joey Scouts from Everton Park, Grovely/Michelson & Wahminda Park spent the Weekend of the 10th & 11th October, doing their Adventure Badge by traveling on many forms of transport and visiting many different places. These included the City Hall and the tower, the museum at Southbank, and the Modern Art Museum with the arts and craft activities there. We also walked across the new walk bridge and whilst on the new walk bridge we had 2 Joey Scout Investitures. Pdraig [Wahminda Park] and Riley [Everton Park]. This was very special for these 2 Joey Scouts as I am sure they are the first two members of Scouting to be invested on the new bridge.

JOTA/JOTI 2009

The weekend of 17th-18th October saw the annual JOTA/JOTI event. This allowed scouting members to talk to other scouting members from all different places.

PROMISE BURST

Have a word of the Promise in each balloon before blowing them up; have two or three sets of balloons. Each team must break their balloons and sort out the words of the Promise.

PROMISE & LAW POSTERS

Divide the Joey Scouts into three groups and give them magazines to cut up to make posters. One group depicts people caring, one group people sharing and the third group people being helpful. Discuss what they have produced and display in the hall for all to see.

BALLOON ROCKET

Set up a piece of string about 5 metres long running along the hall on a slight incline. Give each Joey Scout a balloon, which they blow up and secure with a peg.

Tape the balloon very loosely to a straw and thread the straw on to the string. When the peg is released the balloon rocket will fly along the string. Only one balloon at a time can be released so patience will be needed.

CHRISTMAS SNOWSCENE

You will need

- An assortment of small plastic figures (you can use cake decorations)
- A small glass jar with screw-on lid
- A phial of Christmas snow glitter/or use dessicated coconut and white vinegar
- Strong waterproof glue
- Eyebrow tweezers

Glue the bottom of the figures to the bottom of the jar. Use tweezers to help set the figures in place. Leave to dry overnight, so the glue can set.

When the figures are glued firmly, pour glitter into the jar and fill with water. Or put in two heaped teaspoonful of dessicated coconut and fill the jar with white vinegar. Glue around the rim of the jar and screw the lid on tight.

BOX OF LOVE

To make this gift you'll need:

- Small plain boxes- Jewelry boxes work very well.
- Glitter, sequins or any ornamentation.
- Ribbon
- Printed poem ( below) on card stock paper if possible.

This is a very special gift
That you can never see.
The reason it's so special,
is it's just for you from me.
Whenever you are happy,
or even feeling blue.
You only have to hold this gift
and know I think of you.

You never can unwrap it,
please leave the ribbon tied.
Just hold the box close
to your heart,
It's filled with love inside.

Have your child decorate the boxes in anyway she/he pleases.
Add a ribbon and the poem, with the signature.

L I G H T H O U S E

One of the Joey Scouts is the lighthouse, at one end of the hall. Half the Mob are rocks and they are spaced around the floor, with a gap between them. The rest of the Mob are ships who have to make their way blindfolded, through the rocks to the lighthouse.

On go, the lighthouse goes Woo-woo to guide the ships. The rocks go Swish-swish very gently, to warn the approaching ships of danger and the ships are supposed to sail between the rocks to the lighthouse beyond. If a ship hits a rock it sinks and stays where it is. When all the ships arrive at the lighthouse, the two halves of the Mob swap sides – the rocks become ships and the ships become rocks and they have a replay.

E L E P H A N T C I R C L E S

Joey Scouts stand in a circle, one hand behind their back, with legs apart and feet touching the next persons. Joey Scouts try to hit the ball between the legs of the other Joey Scouts; if the ball goes through their legs they must turn around facing the outside of the circle, while still trying to defend their legs as before.

SPIES

Our Cub Scout Program encompasses the Aim of the Scout Movement to encourage the SOCIAL, PHYSICAL, INTELLECTUAL, EMOTIONAL, and SPIRITUAL development of young people so that they may take a constructive place in society as responsible citizens and as members of their local, national and international communities.

Are you including SPIES into your Program? The end of the year is a great time to reflect, review and reorganise. Let's be realistic you won't probably fit SPIES into each weekly program but looking across the months and especially the term's programs – you want to make sure the Cub Scouts have received a well rounded program aimed at developing their skills, interests and abilities.

Remember planning is important and does make the job easier in the long term! FAIL TO PLAN, PLAN TO FAIL!

Cuboree 2010 Website

By now you should have received your Cuboree 2010 Application forms and be aware of the Cuboree Website <http://cuboree.scoutsqld.com.au> – applications, newsletters and general information is available and will be updated regularly.

The excitement of the Cuboree – 'The Web of Life' is building and we are encouraged by the support and interest, of not only our Cub Scout Leaders, but other Leaders from the Movements, community service groups and organisations and the Southern Downs Regional Council. This adventure could not work without everyone's enthusiasm and support.

Cub Scout Leaders can now start to identify those Cub Scouts that would be eligible and assist with preparing them to be able to attend the 1st Queensland Cuboree in Stanthorpe – September 2010.

Branch Commissioner Challenge

How have you been going at achieving the Branch Commissioner's Cub Scout Challenge 2009? I know many Leaders have spoken to me about this Challenge – I look forward to receiving your reports on the Pack's progress. This documentation does not need to be labour intensive, a quick report, some photos will provide the evidence required.

As you would all be aware if you are running quality Programs for your Cub Scout Pack – then the Challenge is not that hard at all!

Cub Scout Expo – Rockhampton

Cub Scout Expo will be making an appearance in Rockhampton in March 2010, application forms will be out soon for Cub Scout Leaders in that Region and the surrounding Regions.

It's a weekend for Cub Scout Leaders to extend their skills, networks and share experiences with other Leaders. It will be fun and packed with ideas and hands on activities.

On behalf of the Cub Scouts of Queensland I would like to thank you all for your support, enthusiasm and hard work in spending time with our Youth Members. They won't often remember to say thank you but know that their smiles when they achieve are packed full of their thanks and respect. Their laughter echoes with their pride at being a Cub Scout. Well done!

KAAS MEAL

Kaa the rock python sometimes eats peculiar things in the jungle.

Fill four long socks with goodies. Add a couple of eyes and a fang to each. Attach a piece of fishing line to the nose of each.

Briefly tell the Cub Scouts, who are sitting in Sixes in straight lines, about Kaa the snake when – lo and behold – here he comes! Good Grief, what has he been eating?

As Leaders slowly pull a snake past each Six the Cub Scouts gently feel what is inside Kaa.

No holding the snake back or he might bite!

SHARP-EYED WOLVES

Mowgli was trained with the wolves to see quickly and remember what he saw.

Sixes sit in groups at equal distance. Two Leaders one at each end of room (or reasonable distance apart) have a large paper bag or pillow slip each.

One Leader quickly takes an article from their bag and throws it to the other Leader who catches it and quickly puts it away.

Throw about six to eight articles.

Cub Scouts watch and remember what was thrown and in what order.

This can be an individual or Six game.

How to put up a Dome tent

It is interesting to watch people put up a dome tent and see the finished product. I remember watching 4 experienced Leaders once putting up such a tent; I believe this took them half an hour. Not all tents are the same, I guess that is why they include instructions. In the latest tent these instructions are sewn in on the inside of the tent bag. What are the main points in putting up the tent?

1. Read the Instructions
2. Check the area where you are erecting the tent.
3. Remember to do up the Velcro strap when putting the fly on. On most tents the seams will line up with the poles when the Velcro straps are used. This is essential as it is one of the methods of keeping the tent in place.
4. Some tents have straps to do up not Velcro
5. Install all the storm guys
6. If you have a tarp big enough put this under the floor, this helps protect the floor and also helps keep the floor dry when you pack up
7. Ensure when you adjust the tent the zips run freely.
8. Put small carpet squares under each leg of you stretcher.
9. Air the tent each day.
10. When putting the tent away, sweep the floor, take out the rubbish, and check the tent for damage. Make sure it is dry and you will be right to put this up on your next outing.

These are only simple tips, make the next camp enjoyable by not having to clean and repair a tent before use.

AJ2010

The packing weekend went off well again with 35 Troop Pallesons packed by 3-30 p.m. on the Saturday. This was a good example of team work and with some taking on the responsibility of being the Patrol Leader.

It just goes to show you that this Patrol System stuff does work and it came naturally on the day. I must make special mention of the Scouts from Marsden and Bardon, actually Marsden also assisted on the tent checking day. Well done to both Troops, if I have missed any Scouts you can be assured I am pleased with your efforts as well.

BADGE SWAP PACKS FOR JAMBOREE

Packs will contain at least 20 badges which will include Queensland specific badges. Some obsolete District Badges and other badges will also be included. We will include two of each so you can keep one if you want and have one to swap.

$9.95 per pack
(+ postage and handling.)

This month's article is about some time based windows of opportunity. We have an opportunity to boost Venturer section numbers. There are great activities that are being organised for Venturers for which all you need to do is bring them to the attention of your Venturers now and get the Venturers to make commitments before the closing dates.

Recruitment Opportunity

I have no statistical evidence to support the following contention but I believe it to be true from anecdotal evidence and the feeling that it makes sense. My contention is that there is a bit of a bubble in the scout section at the moment due to the interest in attending the jamboree in January. Not all but many of those scouts will be over 14 ½ by the time the jamboree is over. We in the Venturer section should be taking this opportunity to see this as the opportunity that it is—many scouts at the end of their time in that section having completed the biggest thing they'll do in the scout section. While their interest in scouting is high we should be doing everything possible to direct that interest toward a continued involvement in the movement by advancing to Venturers. Work with all your local scout section leaders to identify those older scouts attending the jamboree, and their mates not attending the jamboree, and devise plans to ensure the scouts see progressing to Venturers is the thing to do before they find scout section a bit anticlimactic after the jamboree. Do it now because I suspect that many will not be seen in the new year if the seed is not well and truly planted before they finish up for this year.

How about you do a quasi-investiture in the next month so the scouts feel they are in the unit but have deferred the option of attending until the new year. Do whatever it takes to retain these members in the movement. Don't let anyone get away with suggesting that a right of a scout to stay in the scout section until they are fifteen years old is in fact a requirement. The only real requirement is for all leaders to do the right thing by each young person by ensuring their interest and level of challenge is maintained.

Noosa Venture and Urban Challenge

There are two events happening in south-east Queensland in early December, and I hope there are events in the other parts of the state that I am just not aware of. The two I refer to are Noosa Venture and Urban Challenge. Details of what these events are and how to apply to attend them are to be found on the Venturer bulletin board at <http://z8.invisionfree.com/QueenslandVenturers>. Could you use these as linking activities for the older scouts? Check with the organisers but they seem to me to be good examples of what Venturers do well. Don't delay as closing dates are approaching regardless of exam timetables.

Camp LUUI 2010

In last month's Encompass there was an advertisement for Camp LUUI 2010. This is a week long camp where Venturers will take part in training and personal exploration. Active participation at the camp will fulfil the requirements of the Venturer Award level Ideals and Initiative tapes, the unit management course component of the Unit Management tape, and the leadership course component of the Queen's Scout Award level Leadership tape. The camp will start on Saturday 16 January and run through to late on Friday 22 January. Application forms and details of other things we'll be doing during the camp will be available shortly via the Venturer bulletin board.

In the past this camp has been an exhausting but enriching experience for the Venturers who have attended. Venturers under sixteen are welcome to apply but I need their Venturer leader to get in contact with me directly to assure me that the Venturer concerned is up to the challenge and will give as much to the camp as we want to give to those attending.

There will be other opportunities early in the year to attend separate Venturer Unit Management and Venturer Leadership courses.

Dates (a partial list)

November

- 20-22 Venturer Leadership Course – Buderim
- 25 Branch Venturer Scout Council meeting

December

- 4-6 Noosa Venture – Noosaville
- 11-13 Urban Challenge

BANANA BASH 2010 COMMITTEE

Banana Bash committee meetings are now being regularly held before monthly QBRE meetings. You may have heard that the prospective date for BASH 2010 is now most "LIKELY" to be the May Long Weekend (subject to Insurance confirmation).

Jacqueline May (JD) has been appointed by QBRE as the Chair for Banana Bash 2010. If you are interested in joining the committee or have any ideas or suggestions for next year's Banana Bash you contact her on jaqueline\_may@live.com.au or 0404 902 236.

ROVER REGION REPRESENTATIVES

There are still several vacancies for Rover Region Representatives for the 2009-2010 term.

Rover Region Representatives are an important activities and communication link between Crews, Regions and QBRE.

As region representative, you are a voice for Rovering in your region. Your duties include regularly communicating with crews in your region, attending QBRE meetings (where possible) and participation in two major rover conferences each year.

If you are interested in becoming a Rover Region Representative or to find out more, contact your existing representative, the QBRE Chairman or BC Rovers.

Contact QBRE to find out if the position has been filled yet in your region?

HAS YOUR CREW ADVISED IT'S CONTACT INFORMATION

Does QBRE have a nominated mail, phone and electronic contact point for your Crew?

Even if your contact information has not changed for some time or your crew leader has been the same person for a while, we URGENTLY need to confirm the correct/current details for all crews

Updated crew contact information can be sent to deputy@qldrovers.org.au

Crew contact information is being assembled and progressively added to a new page in the Rover website.

Rovers often tell QBRE that they didn't know about a particular activity or that they didn't get sufficient information about an activity.

Good communication needs to be two way and there will always still be some responsibility on individual Rovers to seek to find out for themselves via the website or others what is happening.

HAVE YOU JOINED THE QLD ROVER WEBSITE

If you have not joined the Queensland Rover Website, it's easy to join, just log onto the Qld Rover Website and follow the simple instructions.

ASHMORE SCOUT GROUP CELEBRATE SUCCESS

Sunday 2nd August 2009 will be a day long remembered and often relived for members of the Ashmore Scout Group who gathered to honour one of their own, the most recent recipient of the Queen's Scout Award in the Group. Aymie has been a member of the Group since joining Joeys at the first available opportunity just 29 days after her 6th birthday.

Aymie revealed that in fact her first experience with the Scouting movement was before she was born when her then pregnant Mum, and Dad assisted on camp as cooks. With Dad John the Group Leader and Mum Linda Group Treasurer, Aymie has only ever known growing up in a Scouting family and wouldn't have it any other way.

She enjoyed learning about Scouting in Joeys and made her mark in the Cub Pack gaining the Yellow Cord. Aymie's Cub Scout Leader Sandra Barker revealed one of her earliest memories of Aymie was a trip to hospital having dislocated her arm on the way to a Cub Scout camp (again her parents volunteering in the kitchen). This all well before Aymie was even old enough to be a Joey Scout!

It came as no surprise when Aymie announced her desire to attain the Queen's Scout Award. This in fact was a decision she reached as a Joey Scout at the presentation ceremony of one of the Group's former Queen's Scouts. During her Queen's Scout journey Aymie, as many others do, came across many road blocks (one literal road block during her bike hike). The way in which Aymie has overcome these bumps on her journey is a testament to her perseverance and integrity and the support of her family, Leaders and fellow Scouts.

The Queen's Scout journey: it's not about what you have done but who you have become.

Youth Awards

YOUTH MEMBERS REWARDED FOR THEIR ACHIEVEMENTS.

Banksia Scout Group, in the Central and Coastal Region had plenty to celebrate in August, Scout Month.

Scout Ryan Lamb was presented with his Australian Scout Medallion and Venturer Scouts Zoe

Roberts and Zac Girvan were presented with Queen's Scout Awards.

Banksia Group is very proud of their youth member achievements and it was a fitting way to celebrate Scout Month and the fact that scouting is alive and well in Mackay. This year is one hundred years of scouting in Mackay.

PLEASE NOTE:
The following forms are required to be submitted for the Youth Award badges to be processed and issued:

- D9—Joey Scout Promise Challenge Application
- D8—Request for the Grey Wolf Award
- D7— Australian Scout Medallion Nomination Form
- D1—Queens Scout Award Recommendation
- D10—Nomination for the Baden Powell Scout Award

All forms are available in the Members Only Area of the Scouts Queensland Website.

By the time you get this newsletter you will probably only have a couple of weeks left in your programming. Have you asked yourself if you have had an international theme in your program over the year? If not why not? It is an international organization. I encourage you all to try and put at least 2 internationally themed nights per year. I would also be delighted to hear from you about your fantastic ideas. Sharing them with others is great for the movement. We can even print your ideas in Encompass. No idea is silly and you never know you might even inspire someone else to have a go. Ideas and photos of your activity would be great.

On a very pleasing note, I had the rare pleasure of awarding our Chief Commissioner, Maurice Law, with his International Explorer's Award at the Branch Executive Meeting in October. Usually it is the Chief who presents awards but this time it was an opportunity to present Maurice with an award in front of his peers. Maurice is the only member of the Branch Team to be awarded this award to date. Well done Maurice.

Does that sound like something you could achieve??? Travelling Overseas and visiting Scouts? Would you like to gain your International Explorer's Award? You can easily do so when you participate in some Scouting activities whilst you are overseas. All you need to do is participate in a recognised international activity and complete two of the following:

- a minimum of four hours service
- a minimum of one night's camping
- a minimum of one days training
- a minimum of three meetings (1 hour duration each)

When you return to Australia, you need to complete at least three presentations to either Scouting or other community groups. This could be in the form of written articles with photographs or talks and speeches made in front of your Section, District, Region or Branch.

The International Pen-Pal Program is a way of communicating throughout the world with other Scouting Groups, an International Experience without leaving town. Members all over the world from Hong Kong to Peru, the UK to Zimbabwe are requesting links with Australian Scouts via email, from which the traditional concept of writing a letter has now given way to.

Through these international connections, young people can develop a broader awareness of the global community, which can assist them in recognising and respecting the differences that exist between the nations and races of the world... all whilst enjoying the common bond of Scouting!

Scouting has always promoted international peace, understanding and cooperation through encouraging contact between young people from various countries and cultures. All that you need to be a part of the Pen-Pal Program is to be a registered Scouts Australia Member, youth or adult.

This month has seen 4 sections from Groups within the state successfully linked with other Groups throughout the world. You too can be one of the many to join the International Scouting Family.

Scout International Student Exchange Program

Our 3 Venturers are leaving for their 6 week Exchange Program on Sunday 22nd November with 2 heading to Denmark and one to Japan. A final meeting of the 3 Venturers along with their Families is taking place on Saturday 7th November where they will be presented with their SISEP scarves and badges and a final run through on their experience in their respective Host Countries.

It is also encouraging to see that already, two expression of interest forms have arrived from prospective candidates for the 2010/11 Exchange Program. We are keen to hear from any Families who may also be interested in hosting a Venturer from overseas for a 6 week period around July 2010.

If you or your friends are interested in doing a similar trip to experience life and Scouting in another country, currently, we can offer Exchanges to Denmark, England and Japan. But if you want to go somewhere else, I'm sure we can organize something. To start the ball rolling, all you need to do is email Scott Edwards at: sisep@qldhq.scouts.com.au and he can then provide you with more information or application forms.

SISEP is a fully registered exchange program with Qld Education that offers the opportunity for Venturer Scouts (14 – 17yrs) to participate in an exchange program to experience a different culture and Scouting. It is open to participants to travel overseas as well as Families interested in Hosting participants from overseas. Destinations include Denmark, England and Japan. As SISEP is a non-profit exchange program, costs are kept low to ensure value for money. Departures are from the end of November to mid January and Arrivals are around July/August.

Applications are now open for the 2010/11 exchange program which will allow plenty of time for fundraising.

Host Families and Host Corp Team. In October the team had two requests from overseas visitors to meet with Scouts during December. Sandra Hemming, Host Corp Coordinator, needs people like yourself to assist with these requests. We are always on the lookout for host families and people to be a part of the Host Corp Team. This may be anywhere from hosting someone for a few hours to show them local Scouting, to 1-2 days whilst they are here on holidays up to several weeks in they are on exchange. Most of our requests are for 3-4 hours to meet local scouts or at least meet them at the airport. We need to keep a list of people who are interested. Contact us to discuss this further. Being a host is a wonderful experience. This month we have had three requests to meet and greet with people from Germany, UK and USA. We need your help to assist these sorts of people.

Other future international events include:

- 26th Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Jamboree, Philippines. 28th December 2009 - 3rd January 2010. Cost $2500-5000. National is

Special Duties

Iain Furby
Deputy Chief Commissioner - Special Duties
dcc.specialduties@scoutsqld.com.au

We have all heard stories which begin, 'Once upon a time there was a beautiful princess...'. Well, here is a story that I came across and there is a difference in it! Hopefully it will give you something to think about and be able to put into practice in your life.

Once upon a time there was a princess who was good and kind and clever, and everyone who knew her loved her, but even her father, the king, who loved her most of all, had to admit that she was rather ugly.

Now, handsome princes are not usually very eager to marry ugly princesses, and so that poor princess's chances of finding a suitable husband did not look very good. But the king was growing old, and he wished to see his only daughter settled down and married to a suitable husband who would take good care of her. So he offered a handsome reward to anyone who would bestow the gift of beauty upon the princess.

Many people came to the palace with various ideas and suggestions-and hopes of riches for their trouble-but all to no avail. Then a very old woman arrived at the palace one day. She was bent and wrinkled and walked with the aid of a stick, and when she spoke her voice was croaky-just as you would expect of a good fairy in disguise! She told the king that if his daughter wished to be beautiful she must bathe in milk.

The king burst out laughing when he heard this. 'If only it were that simple,' he sighed. 'The princess tried bathing in milk lots of times-cow's milk, goat's milk, asses' milk-you name it and she's tried it,' he exclaimed despairingly.

'One moment,' croaked the bent old woman. 'My suggestion is not quite as simple as it sounds. You must dig a deep pit in the centre of the palace courtyard and each of your loyal subjects must bring one jug of milk and empty it into the pit. They must do this during the night, and in the morning when the pit is full of milk, the princess shall rise up early and bathe. The magic lies not in the milk but in the love and sacrifice of your people.'

The king knew that all the people in the land loved the princess and he felt sure that they would not hesitate to sacrifice one jug of milk in order to make her beautiful.

So a large pit was dug in the palace courtyard, and in the best fairy-tale tradition the king sent out a proclamation to all the people in his kingdom urging them to donate one jug of milk and to bring it to the palace that very night.

After dark that night there was a great deal of coming and going. One man left his little cottage carrying his jug and made his way to the palace. He loved the princess and wished her to be beautiful, but he was a little bit mean and thought it a pity to waste a jug of precious milk. He hit upon the idea of filling his jug with water instead, for, he reasoned, nobody would be any the wiser and one jug of water amongst so much milk surely could not make any difference. Under the cover of darkness he entered the palace courtyard and tipped the water into the large hole. Then he made his way back with his empty jug and anyone who saw him would no doubt think that he had done his duty.

The princess rose very early the next morning and made her way to the courtyard of the palace. When she and her handmaidens reached the pit, imagine their disappointment to discover that it contained nothing but water. Every single one of the king's subjects had hit upon the same idea. They had each thought that they could rely on other people to provide the milk and reasoned that their small contribution would not be missed.

As this is a fairy-tale with a difference, it has to be said that everyone did not live happily ever after. The king and his daughter were bitterly disappointed with the way their subjects had behaved and the poor princess remained ugly to the end of her days.

How sad that when the king asked his people to make a small sacrifice they were not willing to respond. When our God wants us to make a little sacrifice-to do something or to give something in his service-do we gladly respond or, like the folk in this story, do we rely on other people and argue that our contribution is not likely to be missed? We need to remember that nobody else can make our contribution.

What can we give to God, we might think. It is worth remembering that he has given us so much and richly blessed each one of us. How much would it cost us to give something, to make some sacrifice, and make our contribution to the well-being of others?

DOVE OF PEACE CRAFT

Martin Luther King's message was always one of peace. Try this pretty dove of peace craft as a reminder. This dove is also very pretty hanging from the Christmas Tree!

You will need:

- White card
- White paper
- Thread
- Glue
- Gold pen
- Dove template

Instructions:

Draw a dove shape on card or print our template. Cut out, and decorate the dove with gold pen. Lie the paper flat in front of you. Fold over a piece about ½ inch wide.

Turn the paper over and fold again. Keep going until all paper is folded. Cut a slit in the centre of the dove and slide the folded paper half way through. Fold the top edges of the folded paper up to join one another and glue together.

If you want to hang the dove punch a hole at the top of the wings and tie through a length of thread.

DREAM CATCHERS

Native American Tradition says that if you hang a dream catcher over your bed, it will catch the bad dreams in its net. Good dreams spiral around the web and pass through the center and back to you. Your dream catcher uses rings, cording, and beads and is a great example of Native American folklore.

For Christmas, make it out of red and green yarn and beads (make small ones for Christmas decorations on the tree)

You will need:

- Tacky glue
- 6" Metal ring
- Assorted pony beads
- 8 yd Beige suede lacing
- Natural cotton twist cord
- Scissors
- Ruler
- 2 Clothespins

Instructions:

1. Wrap the ring: Spread glue on first inch of suede lacing and hold in place on the ring with a clothespin. Wrap the lacing around the metal ring, being careful not to twist the lacing. Glue the end to the lacing where they meet and hold with the clothespin until dry.

2. Wrap the ring: Spread glue on first inch of suede lacing and hold in place on the ring with a clothespin. Wrap the lacing around the metal ring, being careful not to twist the lacing. Glue the end to the lacing where they meet and hold with the clothespin until dry.

3. Tie the webbing: Roll cotton cord loosely into a ball. Knot one end of cotton cord around the metal ring then seal the knot with glue. Tie approximately six half hitches every three inches around the ring. Pinch each completed knot as you begin the next. Add a half hitch next to the knot where you began. Then begin tying half hitches in the middle of the cord you already added. Continue until you complete a total of three more circles of half hitches. Double knot the cord in the center of the webbing then seal knot with glue. Cut off excess cord.

4. Adding the hanger: Cut three 10" lengths and three 12" lengths of suede lacing. Knot ends together of one 10" length and insert one end of loop through metal ring at the top. Draw knot through loop and pull tight.

5. Adding the dangles: Knot one end of each of the other laces. Thread an even number of beads onto each lace then knot other end. Slide the same number of the beads up to each knot. Fold

SCOUT CHRISTMAS CAROLS

Tune: Jingle Bells

School is out, we won't pout,
Cubs shout "hip hooray!"
Something Special's coming soon,
And it's Christmas day.

Wrap the gift, trim the tree,
Mind your Mon and Dad.
You'll get presents if you do,
Boy, won't you be glad!

Tune: Frosty the Snowman

Tommy, the Cub Scout
Was a very happy boy.
With a uniform of blue and gold
And a Den that gave him joy.

Tommy, the Cub Scout
Earned his badges one by one.
He did his best and met the test.
A good citizen he's become.

He helps out other people when
He sees they need a lot.
He does his chores around the house
And feeds his dog (named Spot).

Tommy, the Cub Scout
Does his duty willingly.
Someday he'll join a Boy Scout Troop
And a fine man he will be.

CHOCOLATE MELTING SPOONS

Simply dip colored, sturdy plastic spoons in melted dark, milk or white chocolate (or candy melts) and top with multicolored or glittery sprinkles.

Wrap in clear or colored cellophane, tied with ribbon. For a special addition to this yummy gift, glue a photo of your child onto a square of construction paper & make it a gift tag.

NOTE: This is intended as a hot drink stirrer. We do NOT recommend you allow young children to eat these alone, as they could bite into the plastic spoon.

YARN: THE CHRISTMAS SCOUT

In spite of the fun and laughter, 13-year-old Frank Wilson was not happy. It was true that he had received all the presents he wanted. And he enjoyed these traditional Christmas Eve reunions of relatives, this year at Aunt Susan's, for the purpose of exchanging gifts and good wishes. But Frank was not happy because this was his first Christmas without his brother, Steve, who during the year, had been killed by a reckless driver. Frank missed his brother and the close companionship they had together.

Frank said good-bye to his relatives and explained to his parents that he was leaving a little early to see a friend: from there he could walk home. Since it was cold outside, Frank put on his new plaid jacket. It was his favorite gift. The other presents he placed on his new sled.

Then Frank headed out, hoping to find the patrol leader of his Boy Scout troop. Frank always felt understood by him. Though rich in wisdom, he lived in the Flats, the section of town where most of the poor lived, and his patrol leader did odd jobs to help support his family. To Frank's disappointment, his friend was not home.

As Frank hiked down the street toward home, he caught glimpses of trees and decorations in many of the small houses. Then, through one front window, he glimpsed a shabby room with the limp stockings hanging over an empty fireplace. A woman was seated near them weeping.

The stockings reminded him of the way he and his brother had always hung theirs side by side. The next morning, they would be bursting with presents. A sudden thought struck Frank; he had not done his "good turn" for the day.

Before the impulse passed, he knocked on the door. "Yes?" the sad voice of the woman inquired. "May I come in?" "You are very welcome," she said, seeing his sled full of gifts, and assuming he was making a collection, "but I have no food or gifts for you. I have nothing for my own children."

"That's not why I am here," Frank replied. "Please choose whatever presents you'd like for your children from this sled." "Why, God bless you!" the amazed woman answered gratefully. She selected some candies, a game, the toy airplane and a puzzle. When she took the new Scout flashlight, Frank almost cried out. Finally, the stockings were full.

"Won't you tell me your name?" she asked, as Frank was leaving. "Just call me the Christmas Scout," he replied.

The visit left the boy touched, and with an unexpected flicker of joy in his heart. He understood that his sorrow was not the only sorrow in the world. Before he left the Flats, he had given away the remainder of his gifts. The plaid jacket had gone to a shivering boy. But he trudged homeward, cold and uneasy. Having given his presents away, Frank now could think of no reasonable explanation to offer his parents. He wondered how he could make them understand.

"Where are your presents, son?" asked his father as he entered the house. "I gave them away." "The airplane from Aunt Susan? Your coat from Grandma? Your flashlight? We thought you were happy with your gifts." "I was very happy," the boy answered lamely.

"But, Frank, how could you be so impulsive?" his mother asked. "How will we explain to the relatives who spent so much time and gave so much love shopping for you?" His father was firm. "You made your choice, Frank. We cannot afford any more presents."

His brother gone, his family disappointed in him, Frank suddenly felt dreadfully alone. He had not expected a reward for his generosity. For he knew that a good deed always should be its own reward. It would be tarnished otherwise. So he did not want his gifts back, however, he wondered if he would ever again truly recapture joy in his life. He thought he had this evening, but it had been fleeting. Frank thought of his brother and sobbed himself to sleep.

The next morning, he came downstairs to find his parents listening to Christmas music on the radio. Then the announcer spoke: "Merry Christmas, everybody! The nicest Christmas story we have this morning comes from the Flats. A crippled boy down there has a new sled this morning, another youngster has a fine plaid jacket, and several families report that their children were made happy last night by gifts from a teenage boy who simply referred to himself as the Christmas Scout. No one could identify him, but the children of the Flats claim that the Christmas Scout was a personal representative of old Santa Claus himself."

Frank felt his father's arms go around his shoulders, and he saw his mother smiling through her tears. "Why didn't you tell us? We didn't understand. We are so proud of you, son." The carols came over the air again filling the room with music.

REINDEER CRAFT TREAT HOLDER

A Reindeer craft that kids can make and give as a gift. These whimsical little reindeer can serve as place card holders for a holiday table, party favors, or give a large reindeer as a gift, filled with the recipients favorite candy!

They are an easy and inexpensive craft for classrooms or scout troops.

You'll Need:

- Scissors
- Craft glue, glue stick or glue dots
- Terracotta clay pots; 2"-5"
- Plastic eyes
- Red pom-poms (glitter pom-poms are a fun addition!)
- Three shades of brown craft foam, cardstock paper or construction paper;

How to Make It:

First, with one shade of brown, cut the antlers to match the size of your pot. If you are making the larger reindeer, use a child's hand-print as pattern. Then, cut the ears with the other brown. We used a lighter shade of brown to add yet another layer to the ears but that's not necessary.

Attach the ears to the back of the pot. Then add the antlers. Glue the eyes and nose the front. Fill the pot with candy, nuts or

VOLUNTEER POSITION AVAILABLE

Camp Karingal, located on 165 hectares of pristine bush at Mt Cotton, (opposite Sirromet Winery) is currently seeking to fill a Weekend Warden's volunteer position. It's a live-in responsibility from Friday afternoon after work to mid-Sunday afternoon only once every 6 weeks. (I.e. a shared roster)

Karingal is becoming more popular as its reputation grows. Currently the Campsite has bookings well into mid 2010

Duties include a small amount of direction to sites, collecting some data from clients or Scouts and handling general enquiries. By the way, all activities over the weekend are pre-booked. In any case, you'll be fully trained by the Karingal Manager and a back-up number is available, so there's no need to stress.

Of course, you may choose to bring your partner to enjoy the weekend and both reside at the Wardens Hut, a small comfortable air-conditioned carpeted building containing beds, kitchen, ensuite and TV facilities.

There's plenty of time for relaxation so this role will suit someone with a friendly, helpful and the dependable nature, who'd also like to spend a quiet weekend in bush once in a while.

Your volunteer help will be tremendously appreciated by Scouting Queensland. Please consider and feel free to contact the Karingal Manager, Paul Oliver on 3206 6310 for a confidential discussion.

The position is available now.
