GOLD COAST REGION CELEBRATES WORLD SCOUT DAY AT CURRUMBIN WILDLIFE SANCTUARY

A gorgeous day on the Gold Coast Region dawned as Youth Members, their families and Leaders began arriving en masse at the Currumbin Wildlife Sanctuary. In all, 330 through the gates to celebrate World Scout Day with a programme of activities tailored just for Scouts including 2 special Quoll Encounters, handling and photographs with an array of animals including Darth Vader, a particularly sweet snake pictured below with Trevor Cripps.

Thanks to the good work over many years by JSL Regina Kidd from Burleigh Heads, JSL Andy Kington from Nerang, and the fine Leaders from this year's FERAL camp who were so keen to visit the Sanctuary for this massive day out. The committee who set the ball rolling with the Sanctuary did a fine job in mapping out the framework which will in years to come, only become ever bigger and better (if that's possible!).

Congratulations to Burleigh Heads' White Wolf Pack whose names were chosen for the breeding pair of endangered Spotted Quolls. Lyle and Lucy are the only animals currently at the Sanctuary who have been named by Scouts. We will definitely come and see you again next year!

The Burleigh Heads Joey Scout Mob have been working hard to provide enrichment items for the animals at the Sanctuary and many other Leaders are keen to assist to help the animals work for their food and enrich their life experience. A great initiative which ties the youth programme in directly to the environment with immediate and visible results. Well done.

$660 was raised to assist the plight of the Spotted Quoll which is a fabulous, but sadly, endangered creature native to the very areas in which we spend so much time—our hinterland National Parks.

$660 will also go towards supporting the great work done by Sanctuary's Animal Hospital.

We appreciate the support of the Quoll Seeker Network with whom we will begin working to assist the Spotted Quoll.

Thanks also to the Gold Coast Blaze for supporting our big day out.

Final big BRAVO to Penny Whitehouse from the Currumbin Wildlife Sanctuary for her vision and passion to partner Scouts and CWS. Penny's hard work behind the scenes, and her dedication to Scouting made the preparations and the day itself very smooth. No, Penny is not a Leader in the Movement ... yet, but she is currently working on producing two Joey Scouts to add to the little girl she's already planning to enrol in a few years. Best of luck with the twins Penny! Hope we get naming rights.

Best of all, World Scout Day on the Gold Coast was HEAPS AND HEAPS OF FUN.

ROLL UP, ROLL UP TO THE EKKA

The magic word at this year's Royal Queensland Show was Scouts Queensland. This year saw Scouts Queensland represented more than ever before at the EKKA. Once again the Scouts Queensland Hub (general Scouting tent) was well visited with close to 9,000 people coming in and visiting the tent over the show period. From the 9,000 visitors Scouts Queensland received just over 300 Membership enquires for groups all over South East Queensland. This year at the Ekka also saw the return of the Scouts Queensland Ekka Bash Car Challenge. As the daylight descended on the showgrounds the roar of four Bash cars was sure to lighten the night up. Bash Cars Bullwinkle, Thumper, Goanna and The Bull performed six nights to audiences up to 15,000 people in the Energex Main Arena. A big thank you to the Rover Crews (BHWBR, Downlands, Clifton Hill and Aspley) involved in executing this great and lively display.

This year also saw Scouts Queensland take on another challenge and put together an entry in the Youth Fruit Display Competition. Scouts Queensland took out overall second place and won first place in the fruit and vegetable display competition. A big thank you must go to Burgo's Fruit Barn for the great produce, the Rovers of Queensland and Karingal Nursery for volunteering plenty of hours to assist the Marketing Department to put the display together. The EKKA was also given a sneak peek of what's to come in the 60th Anniversary of the Brisbane Gang Show. The cast from the 2010 Production of the Brisbane Gang Show wowed alfresco dinners on both Saturday's as they showed highlights from this year's show. Thanks must go to Geoff and the Brisbane Gang Show crew for helping to promote Scouting that little bit more at the 2010 EKKA.

Plans are already being put together for our involvement at next year's show. Keep an eye out in Encompass to find out how Scouts Queensland will be involved in the 2011 EKKA.

MONSTER TRUCKS IN TOWNSVILLE

Monster Trucks came to Townsville for a Show and Kirwan Scout Group was called upon to perform a MASSIVE Emu Parade.. Look at the happy faces on the Scouts, Leaders and Parents who restored the Townsville show grounds to an awesome site. We all had a great time. Scouts are now making sure they never drop any rubbish ever again. The Parents and Leaders were amazed at how happy the Scouts were at completing the task.

LEADER & ROVERS DRESS UP FOR A WORTHY CAUSE.

Saturday the 31st of July saw the 2nd Annual World Scout Day Ball take place. Over 160 Leaders and Rovers attended the Ball that was held at the Mercure Hotel Brisbane.

The World Scout Day Ball allowed members to be spoiled with scrumptious food, glamour up and most importantly have a good time. On the night the Chief Commissioner of Queensland Mr Maurice Law AM, launched Scouts Queensland's involvement in World Scout Dollar Day. On the night the attendees Raised $800 to be added to the Scouts Queensland Donation to the Kenyan food for life program.

We were also given the opportunity to be given a special performance by the 2010 Cast of the Wonargo Revue. 20 of the Wonargo Cast members braved the cold and put on a spectacular 15 minute preview of what's to come in this year's show.

A big thank you to everyone who attended this year ball, everyone seemed to have a great night and enjoyed themselves.

SCOUTS OF THE AIR TRIPLE S TRIP

The Scouts of the Air had a fantastic time at the SSS Camp and learnt lots of new skills and made many new friends. This is the first time any of the kids have had the opportunity to camp as a patrol under scout conditions and camp rig.

The experience of putting up their own camp site which they are proud to say did not come down in the storm on Friday evening to burning pancakes and having another Scout Leader to dinner Sunday evening is something they will never forget.

The second part of the trip was to learn how the Gang show is put together and to participate in the matinee on the Wednesday. The Gang Show cast and team made this a wonderful time for these Scouts. They had a wonderful time and learnt the steps for the dance in 20 minutes.

We, the Leaders and Scouts of the Air would like to say thank you and a BRAVO to all who made this trip possible and it is something these Scouts will always remember.

CARNIVAL OF FLOWERS

It was all hands on deck for the most recent District Training Meeting on the Darling Downs when we gathered to spruce up the Scout float for the Carnival of Flowers. The Darling Downs comes to life in September (17th to 26th) and the parade that is held as part of the festivities provides an opportunity to raise awareness of Scouting across the Downs. During the sprucing activities some of our workers were quite surprised to be photographed. Others however were hard at work and did not even notice the camera.

A few of our helpers however seemed to forget the idea was to paint the float and not themselves ;-), or maybe this is a case of not by the hairs of my painted "chinny chin chin"?

Since Cuboree is to occur later in September just down the road at Stanthorpe the Carnival of Flowers would present a great opportunity for anyone to come up the Downs and check things out. We will see you there!

GUMDALE JOEY SCOUTS STEAM TRAIN ADVENTURE

On Sunday 1st August Gumdale Joey Scouts went on a Steam Train excursion as part of their adventure challenge badge. It all started at our normal Joey Scout night on the Wednesday prior when we had David from the Queensland Rail Community Education Unit come and talked to us about rail safety.

So on Sunday when we arrived at our local train station we all knew how to behave and what to do. We caught a train in to Roma St, where we went and had lunch at Roma St parklands as well as a play in the playgrounds.

Then we headed over to the train platform at Roma St and had a look at the Steam train we were going to ride on. We all got to have a look at the controls and the fire where the coal is put.

After posing for photos with the train we found our carriage and sat in our seats. The train whistled and off we went we went on a big loop around Brisbane and even saw where the trains go to be cleaned and not to forget past the Ekka grounds where the Ekka was being set up. We all got to have a look around the train while it was moving including standing out on the platform between the carriages and feeling the wind and soot in our faces. The hour that we were on the train went very quickly.

When we got back to Roma St we had to wait for our train home, so while we were waiting two friendly policemen came and had a chat to us. We caught our train home and had lots of stories to tell our parents. All the Leaders, Joey Scouts and Parent Helpers had a wonderful time.

RADIO LOLLIPOP: MANLY-LOTA CUB SCOUTS CONTINUE 25YR OLD SERVICE.

With Promise & Law 'helping other people' Boomerang work in mind, the Manly-Lota Cub Section Leader's decided who better to help than less fortunate potential Cub Scouts, those in hospital.

With privacy reasons and infection control stopping ward visits, we contacted Radio Lollipop. Radio Lollipop, founded in the UK in 1979, is an International children's charity providing volunteer care, comfort, play and entertainment to sick children in hospital.

After much organisation, and heavy in-hospital promotion, on August 14th 2010, 16 energetic Cub Scouts and their Leaders visited the studio at the Mater Hospital in Brisbane. With the theme of superheroes, and more particularly 'Ironman' for the afternoon, the Cub Scouts threw themselves into many craft activities and games but the most popular activity of the afternoon was having a 'turn' on the in-hospital radio station.

Radio Lollipop Brisbane Chair, Scott Bradley, aka 'Cowboy Jack', did a magnificent job as DJ for the afternoon. He ensured each Cub had their turn on the radio by announcing a favourite song, telling a joke, asking a competition question or talking about what is great about being a Cub Scout in the Scout movement.

Following an afternoon tea break organized by Radio Lollipop the Cub Scouts performed Ging Gang Gooli live over the radio, followed by a very loud W-O-L-F that went out to all the children listening on the radio throughout the hospital as thanks to the Radio Lollipop volunteers and to all the sick children who allowed Manly-Lota the chance to brighten their day.

At the end of a very busy couple of hours on air each child in the hospital and all the Cub Scouts received an Ironman 2 poster, compliments of Paramount Pictures. We were then relayed the following interesting story.

In 1985 the World Association of Girl Guides/Girl Scouts celebrated the 75th Anniversary of Guiding and, throughout the world, special projects were undertaken to celebrate this memorable milestone. The Girl Guides/Girl Scouts committed to raising sufficient funds to purchase the necessary equipment to set up the first Radio Lollipop service in Australia. Raising an amazing sum of $36,825.84 Radio Lollipop was launched at the Princess Margaret Hospital in Perth on the 3 November 1985.

We returned home on the train, and there the story ended; well so we thought. Until I was sent the following in an email by Pamela Weymouth, Radio Lollipop Business Development Manager.

The following story is a reflection of one cub's thoughtfulness and compassion that shone through in a special moment that created a WOW for everyone! A nurse was pushing a disabled boy in a wheelchair around the hospital to give him a break from the wards and they came past the studio just as the Cub Scouts were leaving. One of the Cub Scouts noticed the boy, went over to him and gave him his Iron Man 2 poster. WOW! What a great way to finish off a great afternoon!

With big thanks to Scott, Pamela, Mel and the team at Radio Lollipop, Manly-Lota Cub Scouts look forward to our next chance to make a small difference to those less fortunate.

DRAYTON CUB SCOUTS REACH NEW HEIGHTS

The Drayton Cub Scouts were fortunate to participate in an Air Activities Day held on the 21st of August. The Cub Scouts had a great time where they learned about aeroplanes including a chance to build their own model plane out of balsa wood.

The Cub Scouts covered the theory of flight and then had an opportunity to go up in a light aircraft, which they indicated was the highlight of the trip.

The Air Activities centre provides a fantastic opportunity for Groups to spice up their programs and put a smile on the faces of our members. Our cooler months provide a fantastic time for flying due to the more stable weather patterns. There is no reason why anyone should ever be stuck with coming up with an exciting program for our youth with choices available like this!

KENNEDY REGION NIGHTHAWK

Over the weekend of the 24th and 25th July, Scouts from the Townsville area took part in the first Kennedy Region Nighthawk. The activity was styled on the original Nighthawk that is conducted annually by the Eastern Downs District, who had helped out with what ended up being many months of planning.

The area surrounding Ross Dam on the outskirts of Townsville saw nearly 80 Scouts and over 20 Leaders as well as members of the Townsville Amateur Radio Club come together for a weekend filled with challenges, adventure and all good things Scouting but very little or no sleep. Around 20 Venturer Scouts also participated in an initiative course that was conducted at the same location, so it was a very busy weekend for Scouting in the Region.

We managed to secure sponsorship from a number of local businesses and as a result the top 3 place getting Patrols and their home Troops received gift vouchers from Bunnings Warehouse and a range of prizes and club memberships from Kathmandu. I would like to thank our sponsors who certainly added to the overall success of the event and look forward to their continued support in the future.

Hermit Park Scout Group had 2 Patrols entered and finished up coming away with the trophy for first and second place, while Pimlico-Mundingburra managed to take third place. All in all it proved to be a great weekend with many positive comments made by all involved.

So if you happen to be in Townsville on the 25th and 26th June next year, why not bring along a Patrol and enter the Kennedy Region Nighthawk.

WYNNUM OPEN DAY A SUCCESS

As part of our 100th anniversary, Wynnum Scouts held an open day at the den on 17/07/2010. It was a great day and all the sections held a stall with Billy Tea and damper to a camp site with gadgets built by the youth members and no modern utilities. We had visits from all the local politicians and parents from the Group. There was not many from the public but we still managed to sign up some new members. The Committee also ran a sausage sizzle to keep us going all day.

We were very impressed the way all Sections mixed together and made it a great day for all. One of the highlights was one of our Cub Scouts, Shaun Hodgkinson, receiving his Grey Wolf award from his Uncle, Brad Richards. It was a surprise for Shaun as he did not know it was happening. We have only one more activity left as part of our celebrations and that is a big party for all the Leaders, Youth Members, Committee and Parents.

WOODFORD SCOUT GROUP ON DISPLAY

The Woodford Scout Group, along with the very keen eye of Scout Leader Steve Wills, were only too happy to display memorabilia from the Woodford Scout Group, in the newly opened Woodford Museum and Artspace. Steve has a great collection and was chuffed to display his wares for all the visitors to the Museum. Well done Willsy.

SCOUTS BLAZE THE RAIL TRAIL.

Five intrepid Scouts from 2nd Toowoomba Scout Group recently took on the Brisbane Valley Rail Trail for a Explorer Level journey. Over two days the boys rode 67km along a challenging dirt track stretching from Toogoolawah to Fernvale.

They encountered locked gates, rough patches, creek crossings, a flat tyre, a broken chain and mechanical malfunctions. All in all a successful trip and five smiling, exhausted boys.

A GREAT SKILLS DAY FOR SIR LESLIE WILSON DISTRICT CUBS!

Cub Scouts, Leaders and Parent Helpers from Sir Leslie Wilson District gathered at Murrenbong Scout camp on a bright and sunny Sunday morning for BoomAlong Day which this year was also World Scout Day. There were 89 Cubs and 20 Cub Leaders as well as 5 Venturer Scouts, a GL and AGL and a small group of Parent Helpers.

During the day we had visits from the Shirley Frederick, District Cub Leader from Bramble Bay District and Gary Hansen, Brisbane North Region Commissioner for Cub Scouts.

As always, BoomAlong Day was a day of opportunities for the Cubs to practice many of their Boomerang level skills and play a few games along the way. For Leaders it was time to work with and get to know others in the District. For the hardy parent helpers who stayed and worked with us on the day it was a time to see the Cubs in action and cook about 20kg of sausages! Once again we had a few Venturer Scouts who gave up their free time on the weekend to come out and work on bases helping out the Leaders and John 'Hippo' Morrison making the sausages sizzle for lunch.

It was great to have 6 Cub Scouts skills bases running throughout the day and even better to see that everyone – youth and adults alike, was having a great time. There were games and craft on the Scouting Traditions base, puzzles and more games at Symbols of Australia, damper and kebabs at Cooking and Fire Safety, problems with snakes of the fake variety at First Aid and Health, Cub Scouts getting lost then finding themselves at Compass and Mapping before getting themselves all in knots at the Ropes base.

Once again we took timeout on the lunch break for our ever growing 'circle sit'. What started as a fill in activity some years ago has become a tradition and each year the circle grows as we make our 'world record' attempts at the biggest 'sit' ever. This year we had 94 youth in the circle and held the sit for 5 seconds before the final collapse!

In recent years BoomAlong Day has had a community awareness aspect added in as we consider our lives and how we can help out our community or Scouts in other parts of the world. This year we responded to the call for donations to the 'Food for Life' program for Scouts in Africa with everyone attending putting in what they could afford and we raised a good amount.

Thanks to everyone who made the 12th annual BoomAlong Day fun and successful.

GLENNIE HEIGHTS WEED BUST THE ENVIRONMENT

The Glennie Heights Scout Group joined forces with the Society for Growing Australian Plants at the Everest Reserve in Warwick on Saturday 21 August.

Venturer Scout Brearne Marsh coordinated the Landcare weed busting activity. Joey Scouts, Cub Scouts, Scouts and Venturer Scouts worked on removing by hand Mother of Millions and Green Panic weeds from the North Western corner of the reserve. Equipment was paid for by Landcare and training was provided by Society members. Society members also helped kept track of who was on site throughout the day.

A total of 15 youth members as well as Leaders and parents attended. A second day will be held in the near future.

SCOUTING SUPPORTS DEFENCE FORCE

Scouting is a very exciting organization and you never know what lies ahead. At the Annual General Meeting of the Kirwan Scout Group a very special presentation was made to our Group. Cub Scout Leader Michelle Reid presented the Group with a Plaque and Australian Flag which was flown in an Australian CH-47D Chinook Helicopter on a combat mission in Southern Afghanistan on 22nd June 2010, in support of Operation Slipper.

Michelle made the presentation on behalf of her Husband who is a big supporter of our Scout Group and while he is working overseas he is thinking about Scouting at home.

The Leaders, Parents and Guests were so thrilled to receive the Australian Flag and Plaque which we will position in our Scout Den.

Chief Commissioner

Maurice J Law, AM
Chief Commissioner of Queensland

As I travel around the Branch the one thing that keeps cropping up all the time is our need for additional leaders. During the last twelve months the majority of the Branch promotions have been directed towards the recruitment of additional Leaders. Whilst we managed in the last Scouting year to recruit additional Adults and we saw the percentage of Adult Leaders in the Movement increase by 3%, obviously we still need to do some work in this regard.

The Branch has developed a number of brochures and posters and we also have some material from National to support the further recruitment of Adults to take on Leadership roles.

Many of you would have also heard me talk about the need for us to be more accepting of people to take on a Leadership role who cannot give a commitment, because of their work situation, to attend every week. We now have a number of Leaders who have been recruited in this way and I am told by the Groups who have recruited these Leaders that it operates very successfully because these Leaders can give a commitment to when they are and are not available according to their work schedule. We still, of course, need at least one Leader in each of the sections who can give a commitment to the attendance that we would normally be seeking.

Over the last couple of weeks we have been involved in promotional activities at the Brisbane Exhibition for the recruitment of both Youth Members and Adults and a number of people have indicated to us their willingness to consider a Leadership role.

The Branch Marketing and Promotions Manager has in the last few days written to all these people advising them of the closest Group to their place of residence. The correspondence also advises them to contact the Group Leader of that Group so that further discussions can be held in relation to them accepting a Leadership role in Scouting.

The really disappointing fact that came out of our Exhibition display is that we had a number of people talk to us about the fact that they put their name down last year as a possible Leader for Scouting and whilst they received a letter from us indicating who they should contact, it was disappointing to be told that despite the fact that they rang the number that we provided and left messages some two or three times, they received no return phone call as a result of those messages. This leads me to ask the question "can we really afford to be so complacent in our search for additional adults to take on Leadership roles in the Movement?"

It also leads me to ask the question "what opinion do these people have of Scouting in Queensland when we fail to acknowledge their offer?" If we are fair dinkum about recruiting additional leaders to the Movement then we cannot afford not to follow up on any lead that we get in this regard.

It is abundantly clear that by recruiting additional Leaders to the Movement we will also increase our Youth Membership because I know of a number of Groups who have waiting lists or have closed admittance to sections of the Group because of the current Leadership numbers within those sections. The posters and materials that we have at Branch Headquarters will do nothing for us sitting in a cupboard. In the Group Mail due to be dispatched during the first week of September you will receive samples of the brochures held at Branch Headquarters and an order form. If you are in a Group who is looking to recruit additional Leaders please fill in the order form and return it to Branch Headquarters so that we can make these brochures available to you and hopefully they will be of use to you.

I have also had the opportunity in recent times to talk to some new Leaders in the Movement and on asking them why they joined the Movement a number of them said to me "because I was asked". I think there is also a message for the Association in those words which give the indication to us that perhaps we should ask the question more often.

The other thing we should be looking at is how we retain an involvement in the Movement by those Rovers who are turning 26 and being booted from the Rover Section. If we can retain this involvement in some way, and that may not be a Leadership role immediately, then hopefully their continued involvement in the Movement will mean that at some time in the future they will want to give service back to the Movement that served them well as a Youth Member.

It would be interesting to see just how many additional Leaders we can recruit to the Movement if each of us made a concerted effort in that regard during this Scouting year.

Until next month I wish you good Scouting and look forward to extending to you the left hand of friendship somewhere along the Scouting trail.

PHASING OUT OF OLD VENTURER SCOUT AWARD SCHEME BADGES

After the introduction of the new Venturer Scout Award Scheme in January 2009, our supplier has been phasing out stock of the old Award Scheme badges, and, as the badges run out, they are not being remanufactured. We have been advised that they currently have none of the following badges:

52348	OUTDOOR LEVEL 1
52331	PURSUIITS LEVEL 1
52361	SERVICE
52339	UNIT MANAGEMENT

We will endeavor to keep obtaining the other badges as required.

Joey Scouts

Michele Johnson
Branch Commissioner (Joey Scouts)
bc.joeyscouts@qldhq.scouts.com.au

Hi there!

Once again the Ekka has rolled round. The Rovers and some Branch Headquarters staff have been out at the Exhibition Grounds setting up a display and stall. I hope you dropped by and saw them in action.

News for 2010.

At the National BCJS meeting it was decided to run campfires during the month of May and that 80% of Joey Scouts and 80% of Joey Scout Leaders would participate in a campfire. By participate we mean that 80% of JSLs will lead a song or an item at a campfire.

The campfires can be local or run by Region or Branch. More news will be forthcoming but now would be a good time to start teaching the Joey Scouts a variety of songs and yells.....or learning some news ones yourself.

In October 2011 Joey Scouts in Queensland will celebrate their 21st birthday.

I realise that many of you run 'Bring a Friend' nights during the year but during October 2011 we will run 'Bring a Friend' for the entire month. Closer to the time you will be issued with a kit including programs, invitations and suggestions for running nights.

There will also be a blanket badge made available for purchase to celebrate this great achievement.

JOEY SCOUT JAUNT 2010

Paper planes, fabulous frogs and terrific towers – with a Sausage sizzle for lunch. It was double the fun at this year's Joey Scout Jaunt. Over 200 hundred Joey Scouts in a total of more than double that number gathered on Boy's Field at BP Park on Saturday, August 7.

Every child had their own passport, and moved around the stations with Leaders and Parents.

This year's theme of "Back to Basics" was interpreted in many ways. Basic paper craft such as planes and pinwheels, basic skills such as shopping, basic games like fishing, tic-tac-toe and blocks, basic crafts with all sorts of collage and basic fun like bubbles were just some of the fabulous activities provided by Mobs from far and wide. Leaders were as enthusiastic leading the first group as the last and children didn't want it all to end.

The Joey Scout Jaunt was a fabulous opportunity for families within Groups to socialize, and for Leaders to meet up with old friends and make new ones, while sharing ideas about everything from games to programs to training.

A huge thank you to all the Mobs that provided stations, to the Rovers who sizzled sausages all day long, to Tony at BP Park and most importantly, to Michele Johnson and her team who organized the event. It was a fabulous day.

2nd TOOWOOMBA VISIT RSPCA

On the 7th August the 2nd Toowoomba Joey Mob visited the R.S.P.C.A. for their Care and Share Badge. Each Joey brought a donation of cash or Dog or Cat food to the shelter.

The Joey Scouts were then given a guided tour of the R.S.P.C.A. by Glen who showed them where their donations would be put to use. The Joey Scouts all enjoyed patting the cats and dogs as well as visiting Roosters and Parrots. Afterwards we even had a play in the park.

Cuboree 2010

At the end of this month more than 800 Cub Scouts and Leaders will be part of the very first Queensland Cuboree; this is a very exciting and busy time for all!

For all of us this is the first and there are many questions, when Leaders arrive at Cuboree they will receive a Cuboree booklet with a map of the venue, the program of events, responsibilities and expectations. Each Team Leader will hold a briefing session with every Leader in their team on site on Friday afternoon; this will assist everyone to hear the same thing at the same time.

Bump in and Bump Out times are in Regions as follows:

Bump In ETA on Friday 24 September:

- | | |
|-------------------------------|-----------------|
| • Central Western and Kennedy | 12.00noon |
| • Moreton | 12.15pm |
| • Wide Bay | 12.30pm |
| • Near North Coast & Country | 12.45pm |
| • Brisbane South | 1.00pm |

These are the anticipated arrival times and buses will have priority over cars, there will be signage and staff to assist with getting through the registration process. We would ask the Leaders to support the process with patience and tolerance.

Discipline on Camp

As Leaders we have all taken the Scout Promise and Law, I would expect you to uphold this in your leadership roles and provide mentorship to the Cub Scouts, other Youth Members and adult helpers throughout the Camp and please abide by all Scouts Queensland policies at all times.

FAQ

Leaders have asked the following questions so to assist with limiting my email inbox I will try to answer:

Can adults bring mobile phones?

Sure but we take no responsibility for any personal items you choose to bring – there are a large number of power outlets available throughout the site.

Can adults bring double bed mattresses or stretchers?

You are sharing tents so space is a premium we would ask you to be considerate of others and make your choices accordingly.

What's Cub Scout Idol?

Each Pack will be invited to provide an activity for the Saturday night concert in the Sub Camps, there will be time provided to prepare for this but if you wish to bring along things to assist with your items you are more than welcome. The aim is just to have a bit of fun, encourage all Cub Scouts to participate in some way; it is by no means a professional performance. Often the simplest things are the best!

I'm with different Packs and Leaders I don't know?

That is the great opportunity of Cuboree to mix and share experiences for Leaders and Cub Scouts. The Packs have been allocated with a great deal of thought and discussions, Pack Leaders have been chosen for their abilities and experience in a variety of venues. There is a mix of regional and suburban Packs, big and small Packs, new and experienced Leaders. Remember this is about the Cub Scouts and as Leaders I would expect you to all be tolerant and understanding of ALL our unique differences!

When can I get there?

The Transport Coordinator Mark Dowsett is coordinating Region bump-in and bumpout times, you must comply with these times regardless of what mode of transport you are taking, there will be some car spaces available on site but you will need to leave your car there for the duration of the Cuboree.

Do I need to bring extra gear?

Our logistic and sub camp teams have done a great job of coordinating the number of people onsite and the space available to the best of our abilities. Please do not bring extra gear as you may not like where you have to stow it for the duration, we will not take any responsibility for gear that is brought to Cuboree unnecessarily. If in doubt ask us the question.

How will we know what to do?

There will be a roster provided at each Sub Camp, Admin, kitchen and other areas around the site, Cuboree Pack Leaders will be briefed every morning. Leaders assisting with Activities, Catering, Welfare, Logistics, Admin or other roles will all be briefed by their Team Coordinators.

Cuboree Open Day

Registrations are being taken for the Open Day via the website form, and will continue until Friday 24 September.

As with every first event there is always many questions but let's remember it is a Cub Scout Camp, for our Cub Scouts – we can over complicate it and we all have differing ideas, please feel reassured you have some of the best Cub Scout Leaders working on Cuboree, some of us have been involved with this journey for a long time.

The Cuboree will provide a unique quality Cub Scout Camp enhancing the development of Cub Scouts by using the Award Scheme and following Scouts Queensland's Aims and Principles. Discipline and safety will be the responsibility of all Leaders in consultation with the home Pack Leaders and the Cuboree Executive.

The Camp will provide the opportunity for Cub Scouts and their Leaders to have social interaction, learn new skills, try something different and of course have fun!

Preparations for the next Jamboree in Maryborough, 2013, are well under way and Contingent Leaders from all states will be meeting in Maryborough in October. It's also now time for our own Contingent preparations to wind up and begin preparing to take as many Scouts from Qld to AJ 2013 as we can. As you can well appreciate, hosting a Jamboree puts great demands on a State and a number of the familiar Contingent faces have accepted the challenge of new roles in the Jamboree Executive Committee.

To this end there are a number of Contingent positions to be filled and I'd like to call for expressions of interest in the following teams:

Transport:

As a member of this team you will:

- Organise the transport of Scouts and Leaders safely to and from the Jamboree site.
- Liaise with the Jamboree Transport Directorate for arrival and departure and the ongoing use of buses by the Jamboree.
- Arrange transport for the Jamboree Troop Leaders weekend in 2012.

Welfare:

As a member of this team you will

- Oversee the health and welfare of the Contingent.
- Liaise with the Jamboree Welfare Directorate and on-site medical facilities
- Monitor relationships within the Troops.
- Monitor the morale of Leaders and ensure they have rostered days off.
- Provide support to Scouts or Leaders requiring medical treatment

Equipment:

As a member of this team you will:

- Prepare Troop and Contingent equipment
- Evaluate the condition of existing equipment and organise new or replacement equipment as necessary.
- Arrange packing and transport of equipment to and from the Jamboree.
- Maintain equipment throughout the Jamboree
- liaise with the Jamboree Directorate for arrival and removal of equipment.

Marketing and Promotion:

As a member of this team you will:

- Organise items supplied to contingent members.
- Organise items for sale during the Jamboree.
- Operate the Contingent "shop" for the sale of souvenirs etc
- Coordinate the distribution of contingent items
- Promote the Jamboree

Camping:

As a member of this team you will:

- Visit Troop lines on a daily basis
- Monitor camping standards and hygiene
- Liaise closely with welfare on the condition of Scouts and Leaders

- Make recommendations to Troops on improvements that can be made.
- Award camping standards

Finance:

As a member of this team you will:

- Be responsible for the overall Contingent budget
- Be responsible for financial control, budget reporting and adherence to budgets
- Work closely with Branch Finance

These descriptions just give a brief idea of the responsibilities of the role and do not form a complete duty statement. A Team Leader will be appointed first and from there members of each team will be assembled. Please be aware that these roles require a large and sustained commitment to the Jamboree. Beginning next year there will be a regular monthly Contingent meeting on the 4th Monday of every month at BHQ.

You will also need to consider other demands such as the JTL weekend and the possible need for you to be part of the advance or rear parties. Hopefully I haven't scared you off as this can a truly satisfying experience bringing an event such as this to so many Scouts. Please send your expressions of interest by email to bc.scouts@qldhq.scouts.com.au or mail it to Branch HQ addressed to Branch Commissioner Scouts.

Planning in the Troop

Within our Troops we should be making long, medium and short term plans with our Troop Councils. This planning is vital for the ongoing success of the Troop and retention of Scouts. Another important plan that needs to be made is an individual plan for the progression of a Scout through the award scheme. Far too many times have I heard a 14 year old Scout with little more than a Scout Craft badge pipe up and say "I want to get the Scout Medallion before I go to Venturer Scouts". Its time that you should be planning for them to move on, not begin a major award. To achieve the Australian Scout Medallion is a big task and needs to be carefully planned out over the Scout's time within the Section.

Early on in a Scout's career you and the PL should sit down with the new Scout and make a plan for achieving the necessary milestones. You will find helpful to have your PL's report on progress at your Troop Councils, this will allow you to monitor and adjust the individual plans as well as keep the ownership of the plan within the individual Patrol. Remember that Scouts MUST PROGRESS to Venturer Scouts by the time they turn 15. Extensions are for mitigating circumstances not poor planning.

"It is a movement, because it moves forward. As soon as it stops moving, it becomes an Organisation, and is no longer Scouting."

Sir Robert Baden-Powell

It has occurred to me from time to time when conducting Venturer Unit Management course sessions on unit constitutions that one of the topics we don't discuss with Venturer Scouts is about terminating membership. We suggest to them that members of the Unit have a responsibility to abide by a code of behaviour acceptable to the others in the Unit, and that this code includes frequency of attendance of Unit activities, as well as behaviour at those activities. At courses we even engineer the scenario that one of the Venturer Scouts in the Unit has been absent for at least three consecutive meetings and has not offered a reason for this absence, and then we ask the Units to put something in their constitution to handle this situation. My hope is that the Venturer Scouts will return to their real Units after the training course and raise this issue with the Leaders and the rest of the Unit. The elephant in the room is what can and should a Unit do when faced with someone not abiding by the Unit's code of behaviour i.e. they are perceived to be a difficult person.

When a Unit is experiencing strained interpersonal relationships, it is likely that a potential solution appears to be that the perceived difficult person should leave the Unit. Difficult people, assuming that is what they are, can occur from Joey Scouts through to Rovers, and can be youth members or adult leaders. The nature of the relationships and the management system is different in each section and so the approach to managing these challenges ends up being different in each section, but there are some common points that need to be remembered in all situations. The first is that Unit Councils cannot terminate someone's membership, nor can Venturer Scout Leaders, or Group Leaders, District or Region Commissioners. No-one other than the Chief Commissioner can terminate an individual's membership. Furthermore, we should not be considering this as an option unless all approaches that involve a satisfactory solution to both parties have been exhausted. So the second point is that when a more powerful group or individual in Scouting wants to influence a less powerful group or individual, the method needs to be fair to all concerned. Scouting is a movement based on the notion that people can be developed to be good citizens, not discarding those who do not fit in.

As adults we are probably all aware of issues with difficult people in our places of work, and may have seen good and bad ways that these issues have been handled. Raise this topic with your Unit and guide them to come up with good ways of handling difficult people issues in your Unit e.g. solutions that involve letting the other party know of the concerns of the Unit and giving them an opportunity to explain their side of the story, or changing their mode of behaviour. If a change in attitude of the Unit or behaviour of the individual cannot be brought about, then what are the acceptable options for temporary or permanent separation of the individual from the Unit? What other parents and leaders need to be kept involved and at what stages? What can the Unit do so that individual continues to enjoy and benefit from Scouting, whether with the Unit or elsewhere?

Lessons learned from thinking about this, and possibly even implementing it in a Unit environment will stand the Venturer Scouts in good stead when they are in the far more pragmatic world of the paid workforce.

BEAUDESERT VENTURER SCOUTS ENJOY

NIGHT HAWK

Five Beaudesert Venturer Scouts enjoyed a cold Saturday night hiking near Crows Nest on the Darling Downs, on the weekend for the 14th-15th August 2010.

"Operation Night Hawk is a huge annual overnight hike competition. Teams navigate around a course in the cold and dark and have to locate and perform certain challenges along the way,"

This year 1380 Scouts, Venturer Scouts, Leaders and officials came from as far away as Roma and Casino to camp at Crows Nest show-ground. Small teams of 5-8 Scouts or Venturer Scouts departed at regular intervals to navigate more than 10km around the nearby hillsides. Operation Night Hawk has been run by the Eastern Downs District Scouts since 1982 and has previously received an Australia Day "Community Event of the Year" Award.

"This year our Unit placed well in the field of more than 70 Venturer Scout teams," Michael Rice said. "They can be really proud of their performance. They navigated more than 10km in four hours of hiking and spent several more hours on the activity challenge bases."

"We got our best scores on maps, first aid and knots," said Peter Harm who was team leader for the weekend. "We need to practice more on our construction," said Kieren Rice as they returned at dawn for a hot drink and breakfast.

"It was an epic trip," said Venturer Scout Marc Lane, adding that he found Venturer Scouts "cool" despite having to hike through the night in subzero conditions with light frost developing from midnight. Steph Jarrett, who is a Night Hawk veteran and knows many of her competitors from previous events, met up with Scouting friends she has known for many years.

Bash Cars at Ekka

For the second year in a row, Queensland Rover Banana Bash Vehicles took part in the main arena activities at the RNA Show.

The Bash Cars performed so many times this year that they were allowed to "sleep over" at the Ekka for the whole show, also acting as a "static" display where they were parked in Gregory Terrace.

The vehicles took part in a "pursuit" style event with the two "Supa Sedans" racing each other first and the two "buggies" racing each other next. It was a great way to promote both Scouting and Rovers in front of a cheering audience of thousands of parents and children.

Boot of the Century – Cage, Nurse Tim & Rollie's Boot!

August also saw one of the largest boots in years with Jarrad McDonald from Lawnton Rover Crew and Michael Gardiner and Tim Williams from The Gap Rover Crew booted in a sunset ceremony at the Wild Horse Mountain lookout, overlooking the spectacular Glass House Mountains. There were over 110 Rovers present; more than a quarter of all current Rovers!

Afterwards, the boot moved to Rocky Creek Scout Campsite at Landsborough for an evening to remember!

BANANA BASH 2011 COMMITTEE

QBRE have appointed Clifton Hill Rover, Kyle Zink as the Chairman for Banana Bash 2011. This year's Banana Bash committee have many challenges before them including finding a non-Scouting site to conduct the event, addressing environmental issues and ways of broadening the appeal of this activity to also include non-bash car activities within the program. If you are interested in joining the committee or have any ideas or suggestions for next year's Banana Bash you can contact Kyle on 0437 020 071 or stimpy91@hotmail.com.

Declared Fire Danger Period

In preparation for the on-coming fire season the Commissioner of the Queensland Fire and Rescue Service has declared a Fire Danger Period from midnight August 29, 2010 to midnight January 2, 2011.

Declaration of a Fire Danger Period across the State brings a change to the previous situation where a small fire of less than 2 metres in size did not require a permit. During the fire danger period anyone wanting to light a fire will need to obtain a 'Permit to Light Fire' from their local fire warden who will assess the circumstances around each application and develop appropriate conditions or reject the application. A declared fire danger period has no impact on other categories of existing notifications that remain unchanged. This includes fires lit out-doors in a properly constructed fire-place for the purposes of cooking and those exemptions applicable to primary producers, including cane growers.

The requirement to obtain a permit for small fires has been introduced with the aim of reducing the number of fires that get out of control and to limit the demands placed on QFRS resources over the bushfire season. During the 2009 fire season small fires that escaped were a significant cause of bushfires because people lighting them did not recognise the changing way weather conditions can affect fire behaviour or did not exercise appropriate control and supervision of the fire.

These new requirements for a Permit complement the situation in many local government areas where councils have adopted a local law under nuisance provisions that prohibits the lighting of fires. If the local government has such a local law a permit is unlikely to be issued by a fire warden unless permission has been obtained from the local government and if so, must be presented to the fire warden when applying for a Permit. Residents who are unsure about the application of nuisance provisions of local laws in respect to the lighting of fires in their area should contact their local government.

Prior to lighting fires, residents should check with either their local fire warden or the rural or urban fire brigade in respect to information on making an application for a 'Permit to Light Fire' as well as whether any notice, notification or local fire ban applies for the area where it is proposed to light the fire.

The Application for Permit to Light Fire form can be found at <http://www.ruralfire.qld.gov.au/Using%20Fire%20Outdoors/Fire%20Wardens/Application%20for%20Permit%20to%20Light%20July%202010%20.pdf>

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE

SEPTEMBER 21ST

The International Day of Peace, also known as the World Peace Day, occurs annually on September 21. It is dedicated to peace, or specifically the absence of war, such as might be occasioned by a temporary ceasefire in a combat zone. It is observed by many nations, political groups, military groups, and peoples. The first year this holiday was celebrated was 1981. To inaugurate the day, the "Peace Bell" is rung at UN Headquarters. The bell is cast from coins donated by children from all continents. It was given as a gift by the Diet of Japan, and is referred to as "a reminder of the human cost of war." The inscription on its side reads: "Long live absolute world peace."

History: 1981

The United Nations General Assembly declared, in a resolution sponsored by the United Kingdom and Costa Rica the third Tuesday of September (the opening day of regular sessions of the General Assembly) as the International Day of Peace devoted to commemorating and strengthening the ideals of peace.

1982

Tuesday, September 21, 1982, was the first occurrence of the International Day of Peace.

2001

In 2001, the day was changed from the third Tuesday to specifically the twenty-first day of September. A new resolution was passed by the General Assembly, sponsored by the United Kingdom (giving credit to Peace One Day) and Costa Rica (the sponsors of the original day) to give the Day of Peace a fixed date and declare it as a global ceasefire day.

2005

In 2005, United Nations Secretary-General Kofi Annan called for the worldwide observance of a 24-hour cease-fire and day of nonviolence to mark the Day.

2007

In 2007, UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon rang the Peace Bell at United Nations Headquarters in New York calling for a 24-hour cessation of hostilities on 21 September, and for a minute of silence to be observed around the world.

2009

As awareness expands ever more rapidly, hundreds of worldwide peace-oriented organizations continue to think globally and act locally. In Honoka'a, a small former sugar cane plantation town on Hawaii's Big Island, the 3rd Annual Parade & Festival for the United Nations International Day of Peace took place September 20 at 12:00 noon HST, featuring eclectic island entertainers such as hula halau, cirque performers, bon dancers and belly dancers, Taiko and Native American drummers, ukulele, jazz, marimba and rock music. Working with international peace organizations such as Peace In Our Life-Time/Planting Seeds and virtual reality site Second Life, the Festival was broadcast live via global streaming video on the internet to potential audience of 1.5 million.

PEACE POLES

Peace poles are four or six-sided poles that have the words "May Peace Prevail on Earth" inscribed in various languages on all sides. There are over 200,000 peace poles standing in countries around the world. Making and dedicating a peace pole can be a community event, a school or Troop event, or just a family project.

A 4 by 4 will do, but a 6 by 6 is better. For tips about choosing the wood, talk to your local hardware store.

Getting Text on the Pole

This usually is the first thing about which people are concerned. There are several options for accomplishing it. One is making your own templates for free as described below.

Making Templates

On a computer printer, printout a full-size template of the translations. A normal printer will not print out anything longer than a 14 inch long legal page. Divide the translation into three sections, each shorter than 14 inches, and then tape the three pages together to make one long template, like the one seen below left.

Set the templates on the pole. Drag a pencil or ballpoint pen on top of the letters heavily enough to leave an impression in the wood. The impression is the rough guide for your paintbrush. You can either draw the outline of the letters or just draw the center line of each one.

For some languages that do not use our alphabet, following the center line might not provide all the information you need. It can be more useful to outline the characters so that you see when the brush stroke should be wide or tapered or have the end squared off. But for most languages, it is much easier to run the brush along the center line.

Paint

Paint the letters over the lines with a small paint brush. An artist's supply or a craft shop has such brushes. You might want one kind of brush for languages like English that evolved on printing presses and another kind for languages like Chinese that evolved on the end of a brush.

Cutting the Top

Some people leave the top square. Others cut a pyramid shape in the top. If you are cutting it, you should do that before you do anything else. Cutting a pyramid into the top of the peace pole is not hard to do. You don't even have to have the right tools, although they help. Just measure, cut carefully, and if it doesn't come out right, you can cut another inch off while trying again. It can be done with a circular saw or a hand saw and the measuring can be done with any ruler if you don't have something that marks a 45 degree angle.

FAMOUS PEACE IMAGE:

This peace sign was used widely in the 60's to express Peace. It was originally designed in 1958 by Gerald Holtom, a design student and activist from England, to promote PEACE and Nuclear Disarmament.

The artist used the semaphore letters "N" (Nuclear) and "D" (Disarmament) to create the image.

THE MAN OF PEACE, THE HORRORS OF WAR

Longing for peace after three years of war, in 1917 B-P wrote "The roots of Scouting have grown among young people of all civilised countries and are developing more each day. It might be thought that if in years to come, a considerable proportion of the future citizens of each nation forms part of this brotherhood, they will be joined by a bond of personal friendship and mutual understanding such as has never existed before, which will help to find a solution to terrible international conflicts."

After the war, Baden-Powell assigned a new mission to Scouting: to strive for and maintain peace. From that moment the Founder visited other countries continuously, encouraging National Scout Organisations to educate for peace and understanding between peoples. He quoted the following address at the 3rd World Jamboree, Arrowe Park, 12 August 1929

"Here is the hatchet of war, of enmity, of bad feeling, which I now bury in Arrowe," said the Chief, at the same time plunging a hatchet in the midst of a barrel of golden arrows." "From all corners of the earth," said the Chief as soon as the cheering had subsided "you have journeyed to this great gathering of World Fellowship and Brotherhood. Today I send you out from Arrowe to all the World, bearing my symbol of Peace and Fellowship, each one of you my ambassador bearing my message of Love and Fellowship on the wings of Sacrifice and Service, to the end of the Earth. From now on the Scout symbol of Peace is the Golden Arrow. Carry it fast and far so that all men may know the Brotherhood of Man."

"To THE NORTH—From the Northlands you came at the call of my horn to this great gathering of Fellowship and Brotherhood." "Today I send you back to your homelands across the great North Seas as my Ambassadors of Peace and Fellowship among the Nations of the World." "I bid you farewell."

"TO THE SOUTH—From the Southland you came at the call of my horn to this great gathering of Fellowship and Brotherhood." "Today I send you back to your homes under the Southern Cross as my Ambassadors of Peace and Fellowship among the Nations of the World." "I bid you farewell."

"TO THE WEST—From the Westlands you came at the call of my horn to this great gathering of Fellowship and Brotherhood." "Today I send you back to your homes in the Great Westlands to the Pacific and beyond as my Ambassadors of Peace and Fellowship among the Nations of the World." "I bid you farewell."

"TO THE EAST—From the Eastlands you came at the call of my horn to this great gathering of Fellowship and Brotherhood." "Today I send you back to your homes under the Starry Skies and Burning Suns to your people of the thousand years, bearing my symbol of Peace and Fellowship to the Nations of the Earth, pledging you to keep my trust." "I bid you farewell."

'The Miser of Marseilles' is what they called him. An old man who walked the streets of that teeming seaport many years ago, hated by all, jeered at and despised. He was hated and hooted at whenever he appeared on the streets, and even throughout the South of France he was an object of derision, for everyone seemed to know him – or so the legend goes.

He seemed to love mothering and had no other object in life than to hoard every bit of money he got hold of; for what purpose no-one knew. When he died there was only one single person at his funeral so despised was he. Then his Will was read. These were its strange terms:

'From my infancy I noticed that the poor people of Marseilles had a great difficulty in getting water. I noticed that water, the gift of God, was very dear and difficult to obtain. And when they could get that water, it was not as pure and clean as God intended it to be. Therefore I vowed before God that I would live but for one purpose, for one end. I would save money, money, money; that I might give it to the city on one condition: that an aqueduct be built to bring fresh, pure water from yonder lake in the hill of Marseilles. That I now make possible by leaving all my hoarded wealth to this city. This is my last Will and Testament'.

That aqueduct is now one of the historic sights which the guides and local inhabitants point out to visitors. They say: 'We called him the Miser of Marseilles, but he was more like the saviour of Marseilles!' Or so the legend goes!

If we 21st Century beings could but learn the one inescapable meaning hidden in that legend we would know the secret of how to get the most out of life, which is, to give the most to life.

If we Leaders could but learn that every child in our care is a possible benefactor of humankind; a possible research worker who may discover a cure for cancer; a possible saviour of our nation in some future crisis, we would the more earnestly apply ourselves to the task of fulfilling our leadership of the young. We should be ever alert to the potential which lurks as yet unfolded in the make-up of our boys and girls.

Picture in your mind's eye a desolate, hot, arid caller. The sun is beating down on parched cracked earth. There is no sign of life – except for a huge eagle lazily riding the thermal currents with massive, outstretched wings, hundreds of feet up. The eagle's eyes are ceaselessly scanning the desert floor.

A lizard stirs – a minute, movement – but instantly the eagle – in a swift, heating attack – seizes it and carries it off. There are many eagle-eyed people in the world today, but, unfortunately, they are eagle-eyed to see another's faults and deformities, and swiftly swoop in to attack with criticism.

But we, as Leaders, must be eagle-eyed in as much as that we must constantly (and that means every meeting night, every camp, every activity) be on the alert to see the as yet unblossomed talents which all our youth members possess. And then, without negative criticism, we must foster that talent.

There is a story about a fifty year celebration of a Scout Group. It was a packed house and the reminiscences flowed like water. Many an old Leader compared the youth members of yesteryear with the present adulthood of some today. These youth members had grown into all varieties. There were butchers, bakers, lawyers, doctors and so on. But one particular story was remembered with great fondness.

Some years back, there was a young Scout who was the bane of his Leader's life. He was forever and eternally climbing things. No tall tree in the vicinity of the camp remained unclimbed, no rock face was safe from his assault. Sure, all boys climb, but he was, well...really!

But the old Leader who was telling the story must have been an eagle-eyed Leader. He saw the boy's potential and fostered it. Where was the boy on the night of the celebration? Well, he was in Peru! Of course, by now he was a young man. What was he doing in Peru? Well, he was employed by the Peruvian Government to teach Peruvian mountaineers how to climb Peruvian mountains more efficiently. That young fellow had become an authority on mountaineering!

His Leader could easily have seen him as a 'pest' in the Troop and discouraged him. He didn't and today the young man is an acknowledged expert in his chosen field.

Next time you feel like discouraging the 'pest' in your Section, stop and think of the Miser of Marseilles, think of the mountains of Peru where, perhaps at that very moment, an eagle rides the thermal current with huge wings outstretched.

BUGLERS

Bugle Instructor Coe's report on September 3 stated that Buglers Fogarty, Slaughter and Ogilvy "have not missed attending parades and are entitled to wear bugler badges. These badges will be ready for issue shortly."

Bugler Fogarty mentioned was Gordon or "Boodge" as he was nicknamed. He had also a cavalry trumpet. Bugler Slaughter was Leslie E. who was also a Patrol Leader. In the band was also Bass Drummer John Fogarty and Bugler Stanley Downes. These four were members of No.1 Kangaroo Point Troop.

KING ISLAND CAMP

On the weekend of September 3- 4, eleven Scouts of the Kangaroo Point Troop with Chief Scoutmaster Snow and Scoutmaster Jacob, were taken to King Island by Mr. Don Muir in his motorboat. Some camped on the boat and some on the island. Of course swimming was a featured activity.

Soon after this Mr Muir became Scoutmaster of Woolloongabba Troop. Prior to September 17 Staff Scoutmaster Leslie J Williams transferred from New Farm Troop to the Y.M.C.A. Troop, due to Scoutmaster E.J. Bignold's leaving Brisbane.

SPECIAL BADGES EXAMINATION

A Headquarters bulletin with regard to special badges examinations stated that, "Examinations will take place as follows: Pioneer, Scoutmaster L. Williams, Saturday September 24, Nundah; electrician, Mr. A.A. Jackson, Friday, September 2, at Mr. A.A. Jackson's electrical works, Ann Street at 7 p.m.; fireman, superintendent Metropolitan Fire Brigade, Wednesday August 31, at 7.30p.m. Musician, Mr. J.S. Marlor, YMCA rooms, Thursday September 8 ; ambulance, Scoutmasters J.K. Dunn and F. Murphy Railway Institute, Saturday, September 3 at 3 p.m.

Scouts must be in uniform and show first class badge or produce certificate from the Scoutmaster showing that they have passed all the first class tests."

CHIEF SCOUTMASTERS OWN PATROL (CSO)

The Chief Scoutmasters own Patrol was reported on September 2, to have begun. This became well known in later years. It was intended to develop into a Troop, as it was described as No.1 Patrol (probationary) of the Chief Scoutmaster Own Troop. A few names mentioned of members of this Patrol were Patrol Leader James Mc Gregor; Scouts Eddie Blackboro and Stanley Wood. The Patrol held a camp at Stradbroke Island on the weekend of September 26-27 1910.

However there was never more than one C.S.O. This Patrol had its own "den" in the grounds of Chief Scoutmaster Snow's home in Shafston Avenue, Kangaroo Point. At this time Scoutmaster Archibald W. Jacob took charge of No1 Kangaroo Point Troop.

This year is the first year that Scouts Queensland has been involved with McHappy Day and we are planning to do our best to help make a valued contribution to Ronald McDonald House Charities. Last Year Scouts Australia helped to raise a record $2.47 Million that assisted in the running and day to day operations of Ronald McDonald houses all over Australia.

This Year Scouts Queensland is offering opportunities for Groups to become involved with your local McDonalds. If your Group is not located near a McDonalds we also encourage you to run some events with in your own Group to help fundraise for this worthy cause. Every person who participates also receives a McHappy Day Scout badge that can be sewn on the camp blanket or swapped. On the day we are asking Scout Groups to assist young McDonalds Staff in collecting money to Support McHappy Day by shaking buckets etc.

So what we need from you

- Group Name
- Section partaking in fundraising
- Leader contact
- Phone Number of Leader Contact
- Email of Leader Contact
- How many Member's are participating in the fundraising.

Please note that Scout Badges are only for Members that participate in McHappy Day 2010 fundraising. Please send all the above details to Shaun Sandilands— Marketing and Promotions Manager on marketingmanager@scoutsqld.com.au or by calling 07 3721 5712. Registration closes 5pm 30th of September. Once we have all the Groups that have registered we will then pass out details of the local McDonalds Restaurant Managers.

So if this sounds like something you would like your Group or Section to participate in hop to it and register now!!
