

KIWI WOGGLE 2017

Scout Patrol Information Booklet

Host District: D'Aguilar Range Scout District

Location: Woodford Showgrounds Theme: "Town & Country"

Dates: 14th – 17th April 2017

KIWI WOGGLE is a Scout Patrol Competition Camp judged on Scout Section Camping Standards and the Scouts Code. Different Scout Districts annually host this annual event over the Easter 4 Day Long Weekend.

Patrols from all areas are invited to compete for the Kiwi Woggle (1st Place) and the Kiwi Trophy (2nd Place).

Inexperienced patrols are welcome to attend without the pressures of being a competition Patrol.

SCOUT PATROLS REGISTRATION:

- Kiwi Woggle Registration Form must be submitted for each patrol attending Kiwi Woggle
- All Registration forms and payments need to be submitted by email or mail by 31/3/2017. No late registrations will be accepted.
- No Refund for non-attendance or early departure unless there is a medical certificate or extenuating circumstances. The Camp Chief will make the final decision.
- Patrol members must be fully paid members of the Scout Association.
- Inexperienced Patrols who require Leader assistance in the Kiwi Woggle Competition MUST note this on their Patrol Registration Form.
- Ad Hoc (blended) Patrols are permitted but MUST be noted on registration forms. Registered Ad Hoc Patrols will not be penalised. Unregistered Ad Hoc Patrols will be penalised. This helps in eliminating the practice of handpicked competition patrols.
- Any changes to the Patrol member's names must be advised prior or at camp check-in.
- Additional Ice, Milk & Bread can be ordered for the Patrol and paid for via the Registration Form, these items can be collected from the QM Store at designated times.

KIWI WOGGLE CAMP COST (PER SCOUT):

$50.00 per Scout - this price includes camp fees, activity costs and a Kiwi Woggle badge.

Please note this camp cost does not include cost of food for individuals/patrol. Please ensure you add food cost to your C4 form.

- Inclusive in the Patrol Camp Registration– Patrols will receive 1 x bag of ice on Saturday and Sunday – this will be collected by the Patrol at designated times from the QM store.

ARRIVAL: From 7:30am Friday 14/4/2017.

A Parking Marshal will direct all cars on entering the Kiwi Woggle site – Woodford Showgrounds

- Vehicle with Patrol Camp Equipment will be directed to a designated area
- Vehicles camping (no Patrol Equipment) will be directed to the camping parking area
- Vehicles dropping off Youth members will be directed to a Drop and Go parking area

PATROL CHECK-IN:

On arrival Patrol Leaders are required to check-in their Patrols at the Main Activities Centre (The Hub)

The Patrol Leader is required to bring the following to check-in

- ü 2 copies of the Patrols C4's - C4's must have Parents initials for each adventurous activity & signature/s on the bottom of the Form (1 x copy for the PL to keep, 1 x for administration)
- ü A73 (Signed Publicity Authorisation Form) for all patrol members
- ü 1 x Campfire Skit form

Patrol Leaders will receive the following on check-in

- Arm Bands for each member of their patrol to wear throughout the camp
- Medical Alert Armbands for any patrol member that has a medical condition
- Highlighted Sub Camp Map with Camp Site Number Allocation
- Kiwi Woggle Site Map
- Invitation to attend the Kiwi Woggle Patrol Leaders Meeting
- Overview of Fridays Program

Once Patrol's and Leaders are checked in - vehicles with Patrol Camp Equipment will be directed to a Sub Camp unloading area. Please be quick when unloading so traffic can flow. Once all gear is unloaded Patrols are to start setting up camp in allocated Sub Camp.

PATROL LEADERS MEETING:

PL's will receive their Patrol Activity Program for the weekend and an overview of activities. Welcome and discussion on competition.

SUB-CAMPS:

At Kiwi Woggle 2017 there will be a number of Scout Sub Camps. Each Sub-Camp will be allocated a Sub Camp Leader and assistants:

- Sub Camp Leaders role is to work with Patrol Leaders to identify risks, issues and problems and help rectify at the earliest opportunity.
- Inexperienced Patrols will receive assistance and guidance when necessary by the Sub Camp Leader.
- Sub Camp Leaders will run Sub Camp Parades morning and afternoon at designated times – this is where Patrol Leaders and Scouts will receive any notices.
- Sub Camp Leaders will organise Sub Camp Activities as per Kiwi Woggle Scout Camp Program
- Sub Camp Leaders will also be distributing medication as required on C4 Permission Forms
- Scout Leaders are requested not to assist any patrol in any way during the competition. SL's are required to check-in with the Sub-Camp Leader prior to entering any Patrol Camps.

PATROL CAMP INFORMATION

For more information about camping standards for this competition review the Scout Section Camping Standards 2014 Booklet from the Scouts Queensland Website – ask your SL for a copy.
